The big news of the week

President Alister announced this week that he will be leaving Napier in December to take up a position in Fiji as a Salvation Army Divisional Leader, rather like a Rotary District Governor but on a smaller scale. We will be sad to see Alister depart these shores as he has shown a great amount of energy and initiative whilst with our club, and we have enjoyed his leadership and company. We wish both Alister and his wife Anne all the best for their new life in the tropics, once you get used to the heat it can be a very pleasant way of life. But we will still see him for some time yet, and we will enjoy his company and leadership whilst he is still here until December.

Raffle this week was won by #33, Jim Taylor. Congratulations Jim.

Guess Whose Coming To Dinner to the club on Saturday 28 October. Sue Page has a board coming round so if interested put your name down now. It is a great dinner evening meeting and getting to know other club members.

Guess who was in town this week. Prime Minister Bill - no he wasn't coming to dinner but was visiting to say hello to a few of his followers. Max took the opportunity to grab him and chat about the Rotary Eradicate Polio project. Both are seen here on left showing that the recent $5 million that the Government donated for the cause will go a long way to making that small number of polio cases disappear completely. Well done Max once again promoting the cause.

On right is tonight's speaker Jeremy Bayliss, proprietor of our meeting venue. He gave a lively talk on the history of the Westshore Beach Inn from its early days in 1926 and which sports the oldest dining room in Hawkes Bay, delicious fresh food being its speciality.
